FOREWORD

1390194

It is with pride that the Mississippi Genealogical Society publishes Volume III, Mississippi Cemetery and Bible Records.

Volumes I and II made their advent in October 1954 and November 1955 and have received much favorable comment from Genealogical libraries and professional and amateur genealogists. Unlike Volume I, which was confined to the Cemetery and Bible records of Copiah County, Mississippi, Volumes II and III give a cross section of Mississippi records. They also contain Cemetery and Bible records from other states but these directly concern Mississippi families and have not heretofore been published.

It is the earnest hope and desire of the Society to have Volume IV of this series ready for the Fall of 1957.

GREENWOOD CEMETERY

Cemetery - Greenwood
Location - Jackson, Hinds County, Mississippi

Copied by - Colonel J. L. Power
Address - Jackson, Mississippi
Date copied - 1859-60
Submitted by - Miss Anabel Power, daughter of Col. J. L. Power
Address - 411 East Amite Street, Jackson, Mississippi
Date submitted - November 21, 1955

Jackson's first cemetery, Greenwood, now in the heart of the city, was part of a grant of land given by the United States Government in 1813, to this State "for a Seat of Government and for other purposes". When the old part of the cemetery (the southern part) was set apart for a cemetery, it was beyond the city limits of the town. Later the acreage was extended to include the entire block on N. West Street from George to McKee, north and south.

Any person who was a citizen of Jackson was entitled to a lot in the cemetery, according to the size of his family. Fifty cents was paid at the City Hall for the application for such lots as might be selected.

In 1859-60, the writer's father, the late Col. J. L. Power, made, from the headstones on the graves, a list of every person buried within the cemetery, between 1823 and 1860, giving the name, date of birth and date of death of each. He then assembled the names alphabetically and published them in 1860 in a small book, A Directory of the City of Jackson, along with other valuable information about the town. The list gives what is perhaps the only authentic, or known list of families buried in Greenwood and is invaluable as a historical document. In this hallowed ground most of the early settlers of Jackson are sleeping the last sleep.

The rate of infant mortality was great at that time, as will be noted by the number of infants and small children included.

Most of the many deaths in 1853 were from yellow fever, during the great epidemic that swept the south that summer from New Orleans to Memphis. Among them was the writer's great grandmother, Mrs. Rebecca Smylie and her son, James.

Note: These stones were so discolored by age, weather and growth of vines, the writing was hardly legible. Majority of dates have since been verified by published records.

Josiah Powell was a First Lieutenant of Capt. James Ware's Company of Infantry, 1st (Harris) Regiment, Georgia Militia, War of 1812.

Census records show the first seven children of Josiah Powell born in Georgia, the 8th child born in Pike County, therefore they emigrated from Madison County, Ga., to Pike County, Miss., in 1817, while Mississippi was still a territory.

Cemetery - Grand Gulf
Location - 7 miles west of Port Gibson, in Claiborne County, Mississippi. Formerly on the Mississippi River.
Copied by - Smith C. Daniell
Address - Port Gibson, Mississippi
Date copied - 1955

Note: Grand Gulf, now a ghost town, was once a thriving river port of over 1000 inhabitants before the War Between the States, and served as a shipping point for Port Gibson. Its wharves were crowded with cotton from Copiah, Hinds and Claiborne Counties.

It is located on the eastern edge of a U formed by the Mississippi River, and when there was a westward shift in the course of the river, it left the town stranded. It received its name from the whirlpools or eddies formed by the current from the Big Black River flowing into the Mississippi River here and by a sandstone cliff jutting into the river.

The town was incorporated in 1833, and in 1835 it ranked third in commercial importance in Mississippi. For 20 years and up to the time of the War Between the States, it shipped more cotton than any other town in the state. A few houses and a historic old cemetery, high up on a hill, are the only remaining symbols of Grand Gulf's past.

Cemetery - Rodney
Location - On a hill, overlooking the old town of Rodney, Jefferson County, Mississippi. Sec 4, R1W, T10N
Copied by - Gordon M. Wells
Address - 2424 Harriette Avenue, Jackson, Hinds County, Mississippi
Date copied - 1955

Note: Rodney is located in the extreme northwestern part of Jefferson County, Mississippi, about 1½ miles from the Mississippi River.

The town was first settled and laid out in 1826, and incorporated in 1828. It was named in honor of Judge Thomas Rodney, a Revolutionary soldier and later a very popular territorial judge, born in 1744 in Delaware. He died at his plantation home in Jefferson County in 1811.

Rodney was an important port town and shipping point until 1864, when a bar formed near the town, cutting it off from the river by a mile and a half.

A historic Presbyterian Church, built in the early days of the town, is now being restored (1955) by descendants of early settlers and interested friends.

Cemetery - Ignatius Flowers
Location - On Ignatius Flowers Plantation in woods off Little Sandy Creek, 2 miles northwest of the Rocky Springs Methodist Church, off of the Cayuga-Port Gibson road in Claiborne County, Mississippi.
Copied and submitted by - Miss Frances A. Cook, Crystal Springs, Miss.
Date copied - May 11, 1953.

Yesterday afternoon, May 11, 1953, I visited the Ignatius Flowers private cemetery on the plantation formerly owned by him, about two miles northwest of Rocky Springs Church, in the woods off the Cayuga-Port Gibson road, Claiborne County.

This cemetery is on a slight rise off Little Sandy Creek. Each slab is solid marble about 4 x 8 feet, formerly supported at each corner by a square-sided marble post about two feet high. One slab was in place; two lay face up on the ground, and a fourth (dislodged from its supports) stood erect against a tree. Three other slabs lay face down on the ground. Some of the marble supports were in place, others lay scattered nearby. The slabs were entirely too heavy to be turned over by hand. The cemetery has been abandoned.

The following information was copied from the three slabs in position and the one against the tree:

Ignatius Flowers/ b. March 17, 1772/ d. March 3, 1839.
Nancy/ wife of Ignatius Flowers/ b. October 27, 1782/ d. February 2, 1852.
G. B. Flowers/ son of Ignatius & Nancy Flowers/ b. June 8, 1814/ d. Jan. 22, 1841.
Elizabeth/ wife of Col. John Coursey/ d. July 3, 1852/ in the 72 year of age.

Note: The G in G. B. Flowers' name stands for Goldsborough, and the B probably stands for Barnes as his mother was a Barnes (Nancy Barnes).

Wadesboro, North Carolina
Anson County
Sept. 9, 1947

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is to certify that I, Mrs. Rosalind Redfearn (Mrs. J. Coit) of Wadesboro, Anson County, North Carolina, on Sept. 9, 1947, visited the old Caraway family burial ground, located in the central-west, Hi. #74 part of the county, 5 miles west of Wadesboro, N. C. In this family burial ground are buried my ancestors, Archibald (Archie) Caraway and his wife, Elizabeth Taylor Caraway, with other Caraway relatives.

This is to further certify that I copied from the tombstones of these ancestors, buried in this family burial ground, the exact inscriptions on their tombstones, and they are given on the attached paper.

(signed) Rosalind A. Redfearn
Mrs. Rosalind Redfearn

Sworn to and subscribed before me a Notary Public in and for the County of Anson, State of North Carolina.

LIBERTY BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY

Cemetery - Liberty Baptist Church
Location - 5 miles east of Jackson, Mississippi, on old U. S. Highway 80, in Rankin County between Jackson and Brandon
Copied and submitted by - Mary J. Berry
Address - 3918 North State Street, Jackson, Mississippi
Date copied - February 25, 1951

Note: Thomas Neely gave the land for this cemetery and for the Liberty Baptist Church. Both were on his plantation. Later the church was moved nearer Fannin, a few miles north east of the original location. Materials were used from the old church to build the new one.

For many years the cemetery was abandoned and neglected, but now (1955) it has been taken over by the Paul H. Truitt Baptist Church near by and will be used again as a burial ground for the neighborhood.

In this cemetery is buried the Revolutionary soldier, Jacob Neely, father of Thomas Neely. Jacob Neely served in the battles of Guilford Court House and King's Mountain under his brother, Capt. Thomas Neely. Jacob's grave was marked by the Magnolia State Chapter, DAR, in 1953. Robert Dunbar (d. 3/15/1826) was in the Revolutionary War. Ref: Claiborne's History of Mississippi, p. 250: also, Family Records Mississippi Revolutionary Soldiers, by Alice Tracy Welch, p. 86, printed 1955.

Robert Dunbar, a native of North Carolina, and Ann Beaver of Virginia were married and migrated to West Florida in 1773/ They later moved to the vicinity of Natchez, Miss., where they settled "Oakley Grove" plantation and built their home there. They had 6 sons and 3 daughters. They were -

1. Elizabeth Dunbar, married Gabriel Benoist of Nantes France, in 1790.
2. William Dunbar, married Martha Willis in 1804 and settled "Dunbarton Plantation", on upper Second Creek near Natchez.
3. Joseph Dunbar, married Olivia Magruder. They lived and died on Arunda Plantation in Jefferson County, Mississippi.
4. Jane Dunbar, married David Ferguson in 1798. She owned the home of her father, "Oakley Grove", where she lived, died and was buried.
5. Robert Dunbar, married Sarah Chotard.
6. James Dunbar, married (1st) Elizabeth (Betsy) Bisland: (2nd) Mrs. January.
7. Charlotte Dunbar, married George Newman in 1809.
8. Isaac Dunbar,married (1st) Mary Wilkinson in 1812: (2nd) Elizabeth Wilkinson.
9. Samuel Dunbar, married Eliza Marbury in 1809.

After the death of Robert Dunbar the plantation, "Oakley Grove" became the home of his daughter, Jane, who married David Ferguson. She was born 6/7/1778: died 1/25/1860. Jane and David Ferguson had 4 children. They were-

1. Dr. George C. Ferguson who died at the age of 30.
2. Margaret Ferguson died at age 18.

3. Charlotte Ferguson married Aylette Buckner. They lived at "Airlie", in Natchez, Mississippi, where they reared a large family. Many descendants of this family still live in and near Natchez.
4. Ann Ferguson married David Hunt of Trenton, New Jersey, in 1816 and they settled Woodlawn Plantation in Jefferson County, Miss., where they lived and died. They had a large family and many of their descendants still live in Adams and Jefferson Counties.

After the death of Jane Dunbar Ferguson, her grand-daughter, Elizabeth Buckner, who married Dr. William C. McCaleb, owned Oakley Grove. For many years it was the home of Dr. and Mrs. McCaleb and his daughter by a former marriage, Lucie McCaleb. After Dr. McCaleb's death, his daughter married Charles Edgar Morris of Port Gibson, Miss. They owned Oakley Grove jointly with Mrs. McCaleb for a number of years, although they no longer lived there.

After the South was invaded by the boll weevil, making farming a hazardous undertaking, Oakley Grove was sold. Later it was re-sold several times.

The old house burned a number of years ago. It was not a mansion but was a comfortable and attractive country home. The Natchez air port is now on part of the land, not far from where the old home stood.

This lovely old place was the home for more than a hundred years of Robert Dunbar and his descendants.

Bessie Morris
Daughter of Charles Edgar and Lucie McCaleb Morris.

"Departed this life at the town of Washington, on the 11th inst. Capt. Andrew Walker, an old Revolutionary Officer of the Penn. Line, and a member of the Cincinnati. The Captain was a child of "Green Erin", many of whose heroic sons, combined with the patriots of America, to achieve the independence of our country and maintain its liberties against the proud and imperious power of Great Britain. The Captain was an honest, intelligent man, and remained firmly attached to the principles of '76 to the end of his life. He has left an only daughter now in her minority. By his last will and testament, he appointed Mr. Samuel Postlethwait of the City of Natchez, his sole executor and guardian to his daughter.

Submitted by - Colonel Sheldon W. Anding
Address - Box 1266, Santa Fe, New Mexico

Note: This cemetery is near the site of the old homestead of Calvin Blue, now occupied by one or more tenant houses. It is near the top of the hill, which leads down to the river valley from the east. The cemetery is abandoned; is in a dense woods, and the site is covered by trees of considerable size. It is in a greatly dilapidated condition. Some years ago an area of one acre covering the site of the cemetery was purchased by Miss Mary Buie, daughter of Prentiss Buie. She had the burial plot enclosed in a woven wire fence, excluding that portion set aside for the interment of negroes. The fence is now in need of repair.
Calvin Blue is undoubtedly buried in this cemetery; however, no gravestone was found for him.

BUCK CEMETERY

Cemetery - Buck burial lot, in Indianola Cemetery
Location - In Indianola, Sunflower County, Mississippi
Copied from - Indianola Newspaper
Date printed - About May 7, 1895.
Submitted by - Cornelia Buck Crowe (Mrs. Stanley Blair)
Address - 2520 Federal Avenue, Los Angeles 64, California

Note: Cornelia Amazon Buck was the daughter of John Wesley Wiley Buck of Choctaw County, Mississippi. She married on January 2, 1876, her cousin, Robert Wiley Buck, son of James Thaddeus Buck, Sr., of Holmes County, Miss. She was buried in the cemetery in Indianola. Many years after her death, a stone was placed to mark her grave.
Cornelia Buck Crowe (Mrs. Stanley Blair)
Daughter of Mrs. Cornelia Amazon Buck.

DEATH'S COLD HAND!

Mrs. Cornelia A., wife of Robt. W. Buck, died in Indianola on the 6th day of May, 1895, at 9 o'clock p.m. She was born in Chocktaw County, of this State, 38 years, 4 months and 28 days before her death. Was married January 2nd, 1876, and had borne six children, four of whom survive her.

During last circuit court a lady took board and lodging at Mr. Buck's restaurant, and was soon stricken with measles, which also was soon taken by Mrs. Buck. After suffering a few days with the measles, pneumonia set in in both her lungs, and nothing but death could relieve her. Conscious to the end, her pure soul was wafted to the Great White Throne, while she was surrounded by kind and sorrowing friends and neighbors. Her friends numbered coextensive with her acquaintance.

Prosperity, poverty or adversities never changed Mrs. Buck. The sun was always shining brightly in her home. Her unshaken faith in her Redeemer was portrayed in her every act and deed. And if we could know that this exemplary christian soul was denied a seat in the haven of rest, we should be tempted to close the lids of Holy Writ forever.

Mrs. Buck was a lady of education and information, the best informed lady in this town, and had an extraordinary knowledge of the Bible. She was kind, forgiving, and generous under all circumstances. A neighbor in all things the word can imply, and never lost an opportunity to do a neighborly act. She died as she lived - without a murmur or a frown.

Note: The four items marked * were recorded by Joshua Cates McBee. The birth of J. T. (Joshua Thompson) McBee and the death of his father a few months before, marked , are in a feminine hand. The item marked  as well as all the records of the Johnsons and Lands were written by Wm. H. Johnson. These cover records of Caroline Land (McBee) Johnson's entire family, except the deaths of herself and her husband, William Hunter Johnson, and that of her eldest sister, Mary Land, wife of Thompson Wilson, who outlived the other members of her family.

Tombstones show that Colonel Wm. H. Johnson died January 15, 1858 and his widow, Caroline Johnson, died December 14 of that same year. According to family records in the Bible of a granddaughter of Thompson and Mary Wilson, owned by Mr. Henry Stigler, of Memphis, Tenn., Thompson Wilson was born Feb. 8, 1784 and died Nov. 9, 1863, and Mary Wilson was born April 15, 1786 and died Nov. 22, 1867. And "Aunt Caroline Johnson was born 1808". (See Stigler Bible following this record - page 125.)

After their marriage in Monroe County, Miss., Joshua C. McBee and Caroline Land McBee, his wife, with a group of their relatives and friends moved to Hinds County, Miss. They were living one mile north of Clinton when Joshua C. McBee died in 1831 (Hinds Co. Deed Book #6, page 532). After his death, his widow and her parents moved to the part of Yazoo County that became Holmes County, Miss. and there she spent the rest of her life and reared her children. The James Stiglers and the Henry Wilson, also, lived in Holmes County.

Miss Ruth Burnet of Terry, Mississippi, wrote as follows to Mrs. Mary Hamilton Burnet (mother of Mrs. Quackenboss):

"June 3rd, 1915

My dear Cousin Mary

I received your letter and thank you for the information. Strange to say before your letter came I had letters from Tobin who is still in New York. The Burnet family came from England and settled in South Carolina.

Capt. John Burnet served in General Francis Marion's Brigade as Capt. and coming to Miss. held many positions of honor. He was an officer in the Spanish Army when this as a Territory. His sons were Daniel, Amos (our grandfather), John (your children's ancestor), and two others whose names I do not now recall. There were several daughters who married Humphreys, Davenport, Cobun, Foote. As you see the connection was as good as any in the sate. Daniel and Amos Burnet were in the Convention of 1817 when the Territory (Orleans) became a State. Daniel Burnet married Agnes Wilson, whose father was James Wilson, one of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence.

If you will read Lowry and McCardles History of Mississippi on page 457 you will see something of the family. Also Claiborne's History where one of the family was Lt. Gov.

There was a large grant of land from Spain made to the family. Supposed to be at Petit Gulf or where old Houston stood somewhere around Rodney. But of course I know nothing about that as it has been so long ago.

Devotedly, Ruth Burnet"

Obituary
For the Texas Baptist

Andrew Jackson departed this life November 14, 1884, aged 49 years, at his home on Red River, about 13 miles from Texarkana.
Brother Neely was born and raised in Rankin Co., Miss. His parents gave the ground for the church and grave yard of what is still known at Liberty Church. Bro. Neely was converted, baptized and united with the church in 1866; being a brother-in-law to the Hon. Judge Estes of Texarkana, Texas. When Bro. Neely came to this country, he united with the First Baptist Church of Texarkana and lived a constant christian life until called to a better land.
He leaves a devoted wife, three daughters and two sons (all small) to follow him to the Father's home on high.

"Verily, Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints".

G. A. Moffat, Pastor
First Baptist Church, Texarkana

The remains of Mr. A. J. Neely were brought to the residence of Judge Estes. The funeral will take place today at 10 oclock from the 1st Baptist Church.

The following written on an old, separate sheet in the Richardson Bible.

Reverand Adam Cloud was the first Protestant Episcopal Clergyman that came to the Southwest. He was born in New Castle County, Delaware, December 30, 1759, and was married to Mary Grandin, near Morristown, New Jersey, January 31, 1788 and came to Natchez in 1792. Three years later he was arrested and carried to the headquarters of Gayoso, who sent him bound to Carondelet, governor general of New Orleans. After a long delay Carondelet gave him his choice to go to Spain and be tried by the Inquisition or leave the colony forever. He chose the latter. His family joined him and they moved to Savannah, Georgia, where he remained twenty years. In 1816 (?) he returned to Mississippi and settled near Greenville. In 1820 he took charge of Christ Church in Jefferson County where he lived till 1832, when he went to Brazoria, Texas, where he died in May, 1834. His wife died May 1832.
